

Questions for Psalm 139: Known by the Lord

1. How does the reality of God's intimate knowledge of me (Psa. 139:1-6) and His inescapable presence (Psa. 139:7-12) provide encouragement in the circumstances of life?
2. Read Psa. 139:5. How does that image ensure me of God's incredible security?
3. At what point is God first engaged in my life (vv. 13-16)? What implications does this have for my life?
4. Consider: Am I ready for God to expose to me my inner attitudes and motivations, so I can yield them to His transforming grace (vv. 23-24)?
